

In order to ensure the effective operation of the partnership and the achievement of its aims and objectives we ask that all members abide by the following code of conduct.

All Love Cambridge Members should:

- Understand and appreciate the role of Love Cambridge
- Appreciate and understand the culture of effective partnership working where the objective is identifying collective common goals that will bring benefits to the city of Cambridge as a whole
- Be prepared to listen to and respect the opinions of others
- Be willing to engage in constructive debate
- Be prepared to get involved and actively contribute to the delivery of the objectives of the company
- Act professionally and be considerate to all Love Cambridge members, staff and directors
- Understand that their position should not be used for personal or commercial gain
- Be willing to respect the collective decisions taken by Love Cambridge
- Be genuinely committed to Love Cambridge.

Please note that failure to do so may result in your membership be suspended or terminated.

Love Cambridge is the trading name of Cambridge City Centre Partnership Limited, a company limited by guarantee. The Memorandum and Articles of Association are available for inspection at the Registered Office - The Guildhall, Market Square, Cambridge, CB2 3QJ. As a company limited by guarantee the Memorandum of Association contains a statement of guarantee by which each of the founder members has undertaken in the event of the company being wound up or dissolved to contribute a maximum of ONE POUND to the assets of this company. Each new member hereby undertakes in such circumstances to make the same contribution subject always to the same limit of liability of ONE POUND. (This undertaking does not apply in relation to affiliate members)