

Santa Arrives in Cambridge!

After a Long Journey direct from the North Pole Santa and his helpers have arrived in Cambridge! Santa and his Elves will be cosy and snug in their specially prepared Grotto and he is looking forward meeting all the children who visit him in the magnificent winter wonderland surrounded by festive dears and polar bears.

From 20th November until Christmas Eve, Father Christmas will be welcoming Children to his Winter Wonderland in the Historic Courts adjacent to the Tourist information Centre at Peas Hill, Cambridge.

The Grotto will be open 6 days a week Tuesday though to Sunday but will be closed Monday. The opening times will be 11.00 to 5.00 Tuesday to Saturday and 11.00 till 3.30 Sunday. The Grotto will open for the first visitors on Saturday 20th November

Each Child who visits will have time to meet with Father Christmas and receive a gift to take away, each ticket is £5 with £1 going to Teenage Cancer Trust. There is also the option of having your photo taken with Santa which will be an additional £5 pounds.

Tickets are available from The Gift Shop in The Guildhall.
