Still looking for the perfect present -
Cambridge Markets has the answer!

If you are still looking for the perfect present look no further than Cambridge Markets. Our local traders have an un-missable selection of gifts ranging from beautiful hand made jewellery pieces, a selection of body products from homemade soaps to invigorating bath salts and a wonderful range of loose tea and freshly ground coffee beans designed to captivate your taste buds, to name but a few.

Open daily in the Market Square between 10am – 4pm with over 100 stalls from you to chose from Cambridge Markets offer unrivalled choice and value. All Saints Garden Arts & Craft Market in Trinity Street is also open in the days before Christmas providing a rich selection of affordable and original hand crafted gifts for the last minute shopper.

It's not all about gifts either – with a wonderfully colourful selection of fresh fruit and vegetables, nuts and dried fruit on offer as part of the extensive general market you are bound to find that extra special something to complete your Christmas dinner.

It's not just about products either with Christmas wrapping paper and cards also available – Cambridge Markets really does have Christmas wrapped up.

Andy White, Markets & Street Trading Manager said: "Cambridge Markets offers such a diverse selection of products I am convinced we have something for everyone from stocking fillers to beautifully hand crafted gifts." He goes on to say "The market offers people the opportunity to purchase a gift that is slightly different, a break in the norm. We have so many unique stall holders you can almost guarantee to get something quite individual for your loved ones this Christmas".

With 4 more shopping days left until Christmas, why not pop to Cambridge Markets to see what is on offer!
